

Teens Possess Talents In Political Campaigns

By JIM HIJIYA

Twenty-three hundred years ago the Greek scientist and philosopher Aristotle sagely declared that "man is by nature a political animal."

Today, teen-agers are discovering the "political animal" in themselves, and American politicians are fully aware of the great potential in young people.

Though not yet old enough to vote, high school students — including many from Lewis and Clark — are now taking an active part in the running of their government by working in such organizations as the Teen-age Democrats and Teen-age Republicans.

They are taking surveys and distributing literature. Many work at campaign headquarters, typing or mailing letters. The teen-agers are always represented at political rallies and conventions.

Candidates Praise Youths

In a recent statement, Mrs. Dorothy R. Powers, Republican candidate for Congress in Washington's Fifth District, emphasized the value of teen-agers in political life:

"Students have their own special brand of enthusiasm, not found in any other group. Their dedication is beyond question. Assigned a job—whether that job be research, putting up yard signs or doorbelling to distribute campaign literature—they get it done. They are knowledgeable on the issues of the day and excellent in their ability to meet the public."

Mrs. Powers' opponent in the November elections, Democratic Rep. Tom Foley, urged young people to take an active part in politics:

"There is still an unfortunate tendency of many to regard 'politics' and 'political activity' as somewhat distasteful. This is a tragic mistake. Millions of people around the world have learned, to their sorrow, what happens when people become apathetic or fail to exercise the political freedoms which legally belong to them. Political activity is everyone's proper business and everyone's responsibility."

For Volunteer Work

Students may work either for a party or for a specific candidate. Anyone wishing to volunteer for work for the Democratic Party may contact the Democratic Central Committee headquarters, N812 Monroe, FA 8-3710. Republican Central Committee headquarters is downtown in the Peyton Bldg., MA 4-1351.

Powers-for-Congress headquarters is in the Old National Bank Bldg., TE 8-8655. Foley headquarters is at N117 Post, TE 8-3665. Volunteers wishing to support other individual candidates may contact their party headquarters to get in touch with them.

Political Education

Mr. Comil P. Padayao, adviser to Spokane Teen-age Republicans and an LC graduate, said that after the elections the "TARs" would be primarily concerned with general political education. Throughout most of the year, the club will hear speakers, see films, hold conventions, debate issues and study parliamentary procedure. "But right now," he said, "our main concern is electing Republicans."

Lisa Caven, president of Teen-age Democrats and a junior at North Central, said that the clubs also have social functions, such as dances and fundraising activities.

Students interested in joining Teen-age Democrats or Teen-age Republicans may call Miss Caven at FA 6-0429 or Mr. Padayao at KE 5-1159.

Voting Responsibility

"One of the major responsibilities for which teen-agers should prepare themselves is the responsibility of voting," said Rep. Foley.

Five-School Con Is Set

Plans for an all-city talent con were discussed at the Associated Student Body council meeting Thursday, said Jim Hijiya, ASB president.

The pay con would consist of two or three top acts from each of five schools—Lewis and Clark, North Central, Shadle Park, Joel Ferris and Rogers—which would travel from school to school. Late November or early December has been tentatively set for the presentations of the con, Jim said.

New Bowling Club

Mike Uno, projects and improvements chairman, reported on the newly organized bowling club. It is not a regular school club in that it has no adviser, he said. Members will bowl at the Bolero Bowl Tuesday after school. Anyone interested in the club should contact Mike in Homeroom 105.

At the meeting it was also decided to again operate an apple machine in the front hall, Jim said. The machine, which has been gone for two years, will operate during lunch, and apples will cost 10 cents each.

The spirit committee announced that a $10 award will be given each semester to the school club which produces the best spirit poster.

Go, Chicken Heart, Go!

One of the displays in Saturday's Health Careers Fair at Shadle Park High School will be the beating heart of a 12-day-old chick.

The fair, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., will feature exhibits in 20 different health field careers.

History Students Advance To Head of Wertz' Class

Have you ever heard the expression, "go to the head of the class"?

In Mr. Peter R. Wertz' history class, this is more than an expression; it's his grading system.

When it's test time and scores are given, Mr. Wertz has a rather unique way of placing students in the classroom. The owner of the highest test score can sit in chair No. 1 and so on down each row.

These are permanent seats until the next test, which usually means an upset.

"This system motivates students to do better, and the response I've had is fantastic. It makes the kids in the last seats try their hardest to improve," Mr. Wertz said.

Books Abandoned

"Would students leave their purses and wallets on top of their lockers?" asked Mrs. Dorothy A. Solin, manager of the Bookroom, recently.

The answer is, "Of course not!" Then why, asked Mrs. Solin, leave your books all over the halls?

The most costly books are being lost, said Mrs. Solin. They are history texts, which cost $6.80 (regardless of condition) and biology texts which cost $6.40.

If you have lost your lock, check with the bookroom. Locks are only a dollar, which is a very small amount to pay for your books being protected and the Bookroom will do everything possible to help all LC students, said Mrs. Solin.

Precollege Tests Given

Several tests are to be given soon to interested college-bound juniors and seniors, said Mr. George W. Palmer, dean of boys.

For juniors, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) will be given Saturday, Oct. 22, from 8 to 11 a.m. at Lewis and Clark, he said. Registration fee is $2, which must be paid to Mr. Palmer in 104 before Saturday.

Mr. Palmer explained that the PSAT is offered to juniors interested in college who want to take a version of the College Entrance Examination Board test in their junior year. It is similar to the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), he said, and, although not a substitute, is almost as good a predictor for success in college as the SAT itself.

Seniors' Tests Offered

Seniors bound for college must decide which of several tests they will take, said Mr. Palmer. Choices depend on which school the student plans on attending, as different schools require different tests, he said.

All students thinking about any Washington college, university or junior college must take the Washington Precollege Test, said Mr. Palmer. This test, he added, costs $5, paid at the time of the test, and will be given at LC on two Saturdays: Nov. 5 for last names beginning A-K and Nov. 12 for last names L-Z.

CEEB Scores Needed

The SAT of the College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) is required for admission by approximately 800 colleges in and out of the state of Washington, said Mr. Palmer. The CEEB Achievement Tests, he added, are used for placement at a number of colleges and universities.

CEEB tests, he said, are given on several dates, the first one being Dec. 3. To register, a student must fill out a registration form, available in 104, and mail it along with the registration fee ($5 for SAT; $7.50 for Achievement Test) to CEEB at Berkeley, Calif.

Midwest Requires ACT

For those students interested in a Midwestern or Southern college the American College Test is offered on several days, the first one Dec. 10. This test, which costs $4.50, is required for registration by many schools in the South and the Midwest, said Mr. Palmer.

Times They Are A-Changing

The recent Girls' Federation talent con was the first LC convocation costing 25 cents and many an economical Tiger was known to have grumbled at the 10-cent price increase. (This sudden boost was 20 times greater than President Johnson's suggested 3.2 percent wage-price increase guideline.)

Yet, in view of today's nationwide inflation (skyrocketing everything from guidelines to hemlines), the price hike was certainly justifiable. Operating costs for the Girls' Federation and all school organizations have risen; indeed, everything (except the stock market) has gone up, up, up.

Also, Lewis and Clark con-goers had been paying a modest 15 cents since the days of World War II, and a price boost was long overdue. Thus, students should not complain too loudly about the dime increase. (Still, if you must "get even," you could pay for a con with one of those cheap new "sandwich" quarters.)

(The preceding has been an unpaid-for, uncalled-for semipolitical denouncement.) —J.H.

Just as Hungry

"I'm starving."

"Me too. I wish this lunch line would move faster!"

"We're just three people from the door. I love chili days."

"I thought you said three from the door."

"We were. Now we're one, two . . . six. Do you know these people?"

"No, but there are people like that in every lunch period. A whole bunch all crowd in line together."

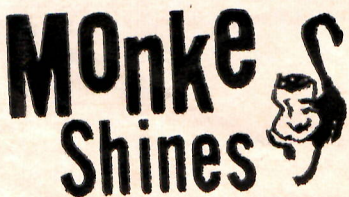

"Why doesn't anyone stop them?"

"Why didn't you?"

"Look, here come some more. We'll never get to eat at this rate. Where's the teacher on duty?"

"Aw, they can't be everywhere at once. One of us should talk to them."

"I wish they'd learn some manners. I'm just as hungry as they are, but I got here first."

"No matter what shape your stomach's in" your nose won't give it away!

The nose distinguished Caesar from other great conquerors because it was Roman.

Nero's nose was Roman but not too sensitive to burning objects, yet he had a grand ear for music.

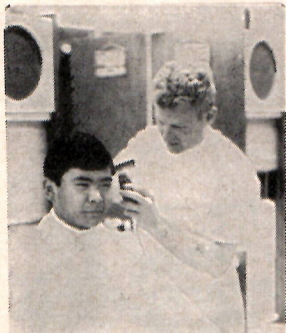

If your nose is running from a cold you might escape the deadly fragrance of poppies, unlike Dorothy with her misguided trio, who fell asleep pursuing their fairy bad mother.

Projecting his character, Bob's Hope was in his nose.

Now, "Jack the Giant Killer" had trouble with a big nose that almost planted him with those famous words,

"Fee, Fi, Fo, Stink.
I smell the blood
of a dirty fink."

A nose is a nose is a nose is a nose by any other name would smell the same.

Aides' Jobs Vary

There are 15 assistants in the library this fall, said Mrs. Bernice Bruton, head librarian.

The job of the assistants is to work at the main desk and book shelves. They must "read" the shelves (to keep them in order), handle the student attendance and assist faculty and other students in locating materials such as file material, periodicals and catalog cards.

They check periodicals in and out of the periodical room, mend the books and pamphlets, do the publicity work in the way of bulletin board displays, type catalog cards, book lists and records, and check the mail.

Tigers' Ills Are Plenty

By CHRISTY TYLER

Oh, refuge for those suffering, Nurse's Room we hail thee, but people in pain certainly do write the strangest things in the category known as "complaint."

These varied complaints may be listed under four basic headings or "symptoms."

The first symptom is Parts of the Body. This symptom is very serious as it usually afflicts an important part of the body. Major areas of complaint under this heading include hand, eye and knee. It would be interesting to learn if the sufferers are complaining about having eyes, hands and knees, or if there's something specifically wrong.

My Aching Band Aid

External is the next "symptom." It is unique in that it can be painful and not even be connected to the body. A frequent complaint in this External "symptom" is band aid. Salt water and the dread first aid cream are equally serious maladies. By the way, how's your band aid been?

The third "symptom" is the most specific of the four and is logically titled Serious Specifics. People suffering under this heading generally know exactly what ails them, which makes diagnosis much easier for those in attendance. Severed finger, chicken pox, sleepiness, nausea and, most serious of the Serious Specifics, I'm dying.

What Ails Thee?

Last, but not least by any means, the extremely communicable of the "symptoms," That in Question. There is only one disease in this category and everyone should guard against it with his life. The "symptom"—?

In all truth there is really one more listing but it can't really be called a symptom. It was this reporter's complaint when she went to the Nurses Room, and by this time it may be yours, too. Complaint—Journal story.

At this meeting Mr. Ilmar Kuljes of Havermale Junior High School is going to teach the members of the conference to tell time in Russian, Miss Cross said. This is so the teachers may have the experience of learning a completely foreign language as their students do. By doing this they hope they can tell how well their present methods of teaching are working.

After this there will be demonstrations in German and Spanish using as "guinea pigs" students from Rogers and Shadle Park high schools, she concluded.

Combined choral and string orchestra will hold its fall concert at 8 p.m. Oct. 26, in the Lewis and Clark auditorium, said Mr. Gerald Hartley, choral director.

The choir will sing a choral suite based on American folk songs arranged by Luigi Zaninelli, said Mr. Hartley. Some of the songs included in the suite will be "Skip to My Lou," "Shenendoah," and "Sweet Betsy From Pike."

The Girls' Glee Club will be heard doing selections from the Broadway musical "Brigadoon," such as "It's Almost Like Being in Love" and "The Heather on the Hill."

On Oct. 28, the Shrine Game, both LC and Ferris will do stunts. The band and Ti-Girls will present a patriotic show. It will be the biggest show of the year, said Mr. Fuller.

One of the formations will be the Statue of Liberty. While this is formed the band will play the finale from "The Builders." "The Builders" is a poem by Longfellow and has been scored for band by Mr. Gerald Hartley, LC music teacher, he said. Andrea Daw will sing while this is played.

They will also form the Shrine emblem, the scimitar and crescent, for the introduction of the queen of the game, he said. For this formation the band will play "Rose Bowl Finale." Mr. Fuller got permission to use this piece from its composer, Mr. Clarence Sawhill of UCLA.

Creative Writing Contest Now Open

Scholastic Creative Writing Awards is sponsoring a writing contest for junior and senior high school students, said Mrs. Clara A. Adams, LC English teacher.

All students in grades 7-12 who are enrolled full time in public, private or parochial schools in the United States, its territories and Canada are eligible. All students in grades 7-9 and grades 10-12 (as of March 1, 1967) can enter, she said.

Awards in the senior division are $100 for first, $50 for second and $25 for third. In the junior division prizes are $50 for first, $25 for second and $10 for third.

Closing date for all applicants is March 1, 1967, Mrs. Adams stated.

Tigers Massacre Indians; Etter Scores 25 Points

By RICK SCAMMELL

Happiness is winning the Lewis and Clark-North Central game 37-20. LC's ancient rival ate Tigerfeathers as the Tigers made it an easy victory over the Indians. The LC eleven looked very good defensively, holding the Indians throughout the game and throwing them for losses. Offensively the Tigers didn't fool around, moving that ball as fast as they got it. LC's Bill Etter scored 25 points in the win.

NC Scores Early

Surprises for all! The Indians scored in the first minutes of play but the Orange and Black retaliated when LC's QB, Bill Etter, heaved a 63-yard pass to Bob Minnix, making the score 6-7.

At the beginning of the second quarter LC found itself on NC's 1-yard line after the Indians had suffered two 15-yard penalties. Etter went in, making the score 12-7. On the kickoff the Tigers recovered at the Indians' 42-yard line, and the drive continued. Again Etter walked over from the 1-yard for a TD. Score: 18-7.

In the second half the Indians were on the warpath, scoring twice, making their last fruitless attempts at scalping the Tigers. After NC's Alberry made the score 18-13 on an 11-yard pass, the LC eleven pranced down the field, and in two plays, made the score 24-18, Etter maneuvering the last 18 yards. The Indians upon applying more warpaint, fought back and NC's Kostelecky scored, but the Tigers weren't through with the Indians yet. The LC eleven stalked down to the NC 5, and Etter went in for the 31-20 tally.

Interception Stops Indians

The Indians' final drive was stopped on an interception by LC's Bruce Johnson at the NC 45, and three plays later Etter went in for the final 37-20 margin.

At the close of the game, the Indians trudged to their wigwam across the river, downtrodden for the ninth consecutive time by LC.

As for next week's game with the Shadle Park Highlanders, it's bound to be a good game. Both teams have suffered losses from Rogers and Gonzaga and both teams are holding their own in league standings.

B's Bomb Titans

Lewis and Clark's B football team beat University 24-7 last Thursday, said Mr. Eugene G. Sivertson, coach.

In the second quarter Dave Nail, quarterback, scored on a quarterback sneak after a long, sustained drive.

Otis Mills scored a TD late in the second quarter on a 15-yard pass from Nail, said Mr. Sivertson.

Nail then scored with another sneak to make the score LC 18, University 7.

In the third quarter, the University team fumbled on the LC 10-yard line, and Nail recovered the ball and ran 90 yards for the final touchdown.

Frosh Nail Bucs

Lewis and Clark's frosh football team swamped Rogers 40-0 in last Thursday's game, said Mr. Robert Scott, coach.

Ed Murray made five of the six touchdowns, three of them on passes from John Etter, quarterback.

Early in the first quarter, Etter threw a 20-yard pass to Murray who ran 12 yards into the end zone. Curt Donner then caught another Etter 15-yard pass and ran 10 yards to score.

The Murray-Etter combination scored again late in the second half on a 25-yard pass play. After taking over the ball again, followed by a sustained drive, Murray scored on a 25-yard trap play up the middle. Murray scored again on another 25-yard pass from quarterback Etter.

Late in the third quarter, Murray made a TD on a spectacular 45-yard punt return.

Golfers Win Hard Match

Lewis and Clark's undefeated girls' golf team won their toughest match of the season against Shadle Park last week, 8-4.

Starting from the No. 1 spot, the team consisted of Darlene Howlett, Chris Snoddy, Nina Welsh, Gail Gotzian, Lynda Wood and Polly Anderson.

The match was played at Downriver Golf Course, and medalist was Debbie Jones of Shadle Park, shooting a 44.

Yesterday the team went against Rogers at Indian Canyon Golf Course, but results were not available at press time.

The All-City Girls' Golf Tournament will be Oct. 25 at Esmeralda.

LC Runs Second Sweep; Harriers Beat WV Birds

By MIKE DERRICK

It was a sweep again as the Lewis and Clark harriers cleaned West Valley, 15-48, last Wednesday at Millwood in a noncounting cross-over meet, leaving themselves in second place in Division II, behind Ferris.

Actually, both teams have 3-0 records, but the cross-over meet does not count in league standings. Ferris does not have such a meet until next Wednesday.

Tigers Face Ferris

Today, Ferris must face up to the Tigers, in what will probably be the deciding race of the season. Joe Ross of Ferris and Tom Burkwest of LC will be contending for the top spot, and after them it could be Mike Travis, Phil Burkwest, Gordie Veium, Sonny Anderson or even Wayne Risteau of Ferris, whose best time of 10:43 does not really rival any of the first five varsity men.

Risteau should finish among or right after those five Tiger A-squad runners. After him the next Saxon is Tom Robinson, who could be taken by Bari Newton. It should be a good meet, and since it is being held at Comstock, it will be an easy one to attend. Time? 3:45.

LC Shines at WV

West Valley crumpled under LC at their own home course last week, and that course may become a favorite to Tom Burkwest. There he ran his first sub-10-minute two-mile of the season, running a 9:57.2. Mike Travis pulled the surprise of the day when he placed second behind Burkwest in 10:11 to move him up from his third-place status. Phil Burkwest also had his day when he came in third. Sonny Anderson bettered his time by three seconds with a 10:22, and Gordie Veium, who had a cold, ran fifth.

The first man in for West Valley was Mike Loran, who grabbed off sixth place. Completing the LC varsity, Dick McAuliffe and Fritz Gibbs ran seventh and eighth.

Bari Newton was beaming after his B-squad race when he turned in a lifetime best 10:42. Jim Williams was less happy about his 11:01 which gave him second place. Tom Porter and John Skadan finished third and fourth and Dan Froese was sixth.

This meet gave LC its third victory for B squad and was the biggest margin by which they have won, 16-39.

Tennis Team City Champs

Lewis and Clark wound up undefeated in the fall tennis league last Thursday with a victory over Shadle Park, 6-1.

The Tiger net squad ended the season with an 8-0 record, losing only six individual matches, which is the second all-time record. They lost two of the matches in singles and four in doubles. Four men ended up with undefeated records.

Craig Richter, who usually played the top spot, finished the fall 8-0, as did John Wood. Andy Ariizumi was 6-0 and Van Wood 2-0. Ken Kato, who played the first position twice, turned in a 7-1 record. Mike Merrill was also 7-1.

There was fine action in the doubles too, with Greg Aronson, Gary Greer, Stan Smith and Dennis Whitten playing regularly. The worst loss in the doubles was to North Central, the second-place team, which took both matches in the doubles, but lost 5-2 as LC swept the singles.

Great optimism was expressed by the LC coach, Mr. M. Jay Stopher, when he said, "We're looking for a repeat next spring."

Scoring for the Shadle Park matches was: Ken Kato (LC) d. Dennis Wilson 6-4, 6-8, 7-5; Craig Richter (LC) d. Mike Parker 6-2, 11-9; Mike Merrill (LC) d. John Yurik 6-3, 7-5; John Wood (LC) d. Rick Marksbury 7-5, 6-4, and Van Wood (LC) d. John Weeden 6-4, 6-1.

LC and Shadle Park split the doubles: Gary Greer-Greg Aronson (LC) d. Wally Toby-Bob Hodge 6-4, 6-4, and Doug Silver-Mike Henderson (SP) d. Stan Smith-Dennis Whitten 6-1, 6-2.

Boy Golfers Win

Lewis and Clark's boys' golf team defeated St. George's 10-2, Oct. 10 at Indian Canyon.

Medalist for the match was LC's Hal Dixon with 40 as he downed St. George's Pete Nicholson 2-0.

Other results were Mike Halvorson (SG) d. Bruce Brevet 1 1/2-1/2; Rick Wilson (LC) d. Jim Johnson 2-0; Gary Protto (LC) d. Bruce Johnson 1 1/2-1/2; Mike Uno (LC) d. John Rosenberry 2-0, and Tim Phillipp (LC) d. Speedy Jensen 2-0.

Monday the golfers faced Shadle Park at Indian Canyon. They are now preparing for the All-City golf match to be held on Monday, Oct. 24, at 1:30 p.m. at Downriver.
